M. F. The colt had shown fast work in the past three days and Dwyer concluded to bet about $5,000 on him. The layers offered as high as 3 to 1 against Ethics, and as soon as Dwyer's money made its appearance in the ring the price began to tumble until the coit was made favorite at 11 to 5. J. S. PITTSBURG, 5; NEW YORK, 4 Pittssumo, Sept 13 - The New Yorks surprised the Pirates to-day by playing a fast game of ball behind the good pitching of Taylor and the leaders were lucky to win the game in the tenth inning on scratch in-field hits by Beaumont and Leach, Wagner's right-field drive and a base on balls. Leach was back at third and his fielding, coupled with three double plays in the infield and a circus catch by Ritchey, kept the visitors score down. Doheny did the pitching and was happy over scoring another victory over Miller, the small se cond-baseman, is a Pittsburg boy and he delighted a large delegation of friends by fielding well and also by starting the scoring in the fifth isning. Ganzel hit the ball hard four times, but sent it safe only once, when he took two bases on a drive to left. Beaumont caught one of his liners and Ritchey ruined a bid for a three-bagger by making a left-hand capture of another liner. The score was tie from the aixth to the tenth. Jones broke it in the last inning by reaching first on Ritchey's fumble and going all the way to the plate when Wagner fell while chasing Van Haltren's fly in center. CINCINNATI. Sept 23 Stimmel and Suthoff, fresh from yesterday's humping at the hands of the New Yorks, were forced to exhibit again to-day before the Brooklyns and the result was one of the worst games of the season. Errors behind Stimmel soon let the visitors get a discouraging start and in the fifth he merely floated the ball in, while the ex-champions eagerly fattened their batting averages. Suthoff finished the game and was no better. The Brooklyns, however, eased their efforts in the latter immings. Daily led at the bat with two doubles and three singles. Capt Kelley, however, twice hit house runs, once with the bases full Sheckard also made a four-sack drive good for four runs. Cincinnati tried Hurley, a new catcher, to-day. Handon received word to-day from President Ebbets, that the Brooklyns had signed Gochenauer, short stop, and Wheeler, third baseman, both of the Dayton team. In the Western Association. The score:

"Rogers—A certain player has made affidavit that he has seen an American League contract with your name signed to it."

"Wolverton—I defy you to prove it."

Rogers, after reading section 5 of the National League contract informed Wolverton that he was fined $500, the total amount due the third baseman for salary to the end of the season. "I'll treat every player on the team the same as I have treated you unless they come to this office and make affidavit that they have signed no contracts and made no agreements of any kind to sign with the American League next year. Wolverton at once consulted a lawyer and says the court will compel Rogers to pay him his salary in full.

Tenney and Dovie have more assists to their credit in proportion to chances than any other National League first basemen. Tenney has the most actual assists and easily leads in this respect, probably on account of being left-handed so that he can whip the bail down to second base guicker than his fellows. The Bostonian, though rated as a crack fielder, also has more errors than the others.

SCHEDULE OF BIG ELEVENS BEGINS THIS WEEK.

First Chance of Getting a Line on the Teams in Actual Contest -Chicagoans Start In to Make Big Scores-Capt. Gould May Do the Punting for Yale.

Though several games have been played this is the week that is considered as marking the formal opening of the football season. Next Saturday will be the first opportunity of getting a line on many of the elevens in actual contest. These games, however, will give only little idea of the ultimate strength of the big teams, as the work of sifting the material has hardly begun and there will be more or less experimenting in the opening contests, which are not apt to prove more than practice for the stronger teams. There Surprises have come to be so frequent in foot-ball in recent years, since playing ability has spread to more than four or five teams, that an upset may come at an early date. The University of Chicago, which attracts more attention in the East than the other strong Western teams, on account of meeting the University of Pennsylvania, has played two games and has started in to run up big scores, Stagg s men beat the Englewood High School by a score of is to 3, and also defeated the Lombard College team by a score of 38 to 0.

Another member of the noted Stillman family is to make his deput in college football this fall. He is Walter Stillman, a brother to George Stillman, last year's Yale tackle, and Alfred Stillman, the Harvard full back and pitcher Walter Stillman will enter Yale and try for the freshman team.

Football practice at Brown University has been going on during the past week and good results have been obtained from the candidates. The men are not very heavy and the coach says that he is inclined to believe that the team will be handicapped in this respect. The heaviest man scales 132 pounds and only five of the candidates exceed 175 pounds. Of the heavy men Hatch. Colter and Webb have shown up well in practice. The schedule follows. Sept. 28.
